

When you are checking out the new image on Infotopia every day, have you noticed the symbol above? It is a link to information about the picture on the front page of Infotopia!

In addition, there is a link to “For More Information—Click Here.” You will find a video about the location or image on the front page! What a great way to see the world, one day at a time.

The creators of Infotopia actually research these topics every day! Did you know that you can request a needed topic for your classes and we will prepare a web page of resources for you? Just send us an email.

Some of the web pages that have been requested by Infotopia users include the following:

Roman Mythology
