Welcome!

Welcome to the students and teachers from Camberwell, England! We are happy you are using Infotopia.info, VirtualLRC.com, Infotrek.info, and Kidtopia.info for your

Are you looking for advanced information on English literature for high school or college students? Let's look at all the resources available, going from easiest to most difficult.

Infotopia—browse through the links to English literature here:

https://www.infotopia.info/english\_lit.html

Virtual LRC—click on the “Directory” and go to “Literature”

<https://www.virtuallrc.com/>

<https://www.infotrek.info/>

or go directly to the literature page

<https://www.infotrek.info/literature.html>

If your students already know their topics, they can always perform a keyword or topic search on any of the three above search engines. Examples might be: Beowulf or Sir Walter Scott. If they don't know a topic that interests them, they can look for topics by browsing through Infotrek's literature page. . For example, I clicked on English literature, then clicked on English Literature: authors, novelists, dramatists, poets, etc. I found the following highlighted on the results page.
