- Using our Thanksgiving resources (see Plimouth Plantation), you can take on the role of a "history detective" to investigate what really happened at the famous 1621 celebration.
- Read the article from National Geographic to learn about Thanksgiving traditions around the U.S. or take a quiz on Thanksgiving to see how much you know.
- Find out about the history of the holiday from the History Channel.
- Check out some eThemes on Thanksgiving from the University of Missouri.
- Most of all, find something you are thankful for and have a Happy Thanksgiving.

Welcome!

Welcome to the students and teachers of Natick, Massachusetts! We're happy you are using Infotopia.info, Infotrek.info and Kidtopia.info for your research needs!

November 11th is Veterans Day and Remembrance Day for most countries. Does your school have an assembly to honor veterans in the community? For resources, check out our web directory at:

http://www.infotopia.info/veterans\_day.html

You can find interviews with veterans, songs from World War I and II, posters from the wars, craft ideas and other ways to thank veterans for their service.
