

infotopia Colonial America

Are your students researching Colonial America? Check out our recommended websites below.

http://www.infotopia.info/colonial_america.html

- Discover primary resources, such as full-text books written by Mayflower passengers. (see Mayflower History)
- Using a simulation, design a colony and select your supplies for the settlement. (see Thinkport)
- Read about the occupations of the members of a colonial settlement. (see Small Planet)

Don't forget to also perform an Infotopia search for your exact topic. Ideas for research include the following:

- Mayflower Compact
- map of thirteen colonies
- crops of the 13 colonies
- education in the 13 colonies
- history of your specific colony

Students: Be sure to compare your research results from several reliable resources. You might also want to check a print resource to see if you are getting reliable information. Where would you choose to live in the original thirteen colonies, and why?
